“ Chris was a wonderful young man who served our country and lived through tragedy when his beautiful mother and father died when he was a very young boy. He grew up with my son and daughter. He loved peaches and running around Lake Robinson with Trent and Meg climbing trees and riding bikes - going to the Sonoco pool all summer long. Chris would get the most beautiful tan. His sister Darlene raised Chris and Joey when she was a very young woman and did a great job with them. I love them all and send sincere sympathy and prayers to Darlene, Darrell, Joey, and Caleb and the rest of the family. Chris will be sorely missed.
