“ Please accept my condolences. No one want to lose a love one. Please when you have time read Psalms 55:22 which tells us: "Throw your burden upon God himself, And he himself will sustain you. Never will he allow the righteous one to totter." Throw your pain upon God and he will sustain you.

“ Jan and Charles, I am so sorry to hear of Chuck's passing. He will always have a special place in my heart. We had a lot of good times together and a lot of laughs. I remember one special night that we (Greg, Jenny, Chuck and myself) camped out by the river with ice all over the trees. There was full moon that night that made the ice look like cut crystal on the trees. What a beautiful night. We almost froze :). So many memories...

“ Mr. & Mrs. Davis, We are sorry to hear of Chucks passing. He was our neighbor (down the dirt road as we always called each other) but he was more importantly a wonderful friend. My husband and him were always talking hunting and getting ready for hunting. They were always coming up with a plan for something. Chuck would always bring our girls candy and treats when he came over, so much in fact that they always said that "Mr. Chuck is the man that always smells like candy". He thought that was the funniest thing. Chuck will be missed greatly in our family. Our prayers to your family in your time of loss. God bless.

“ Mr. & Mrs. Davis, I am very sorry to hear of the passing of Chuck, I am out of town and just learned. I had a lot of good times hunting with Chuck . Chuck took me duck hunting the first time i ever went and we had a ball , even though we both fell in the water and about froze our butts off. i also got to enjoy deer hunting with Chuck. Chuck was always a big outdoors person. I know he is in a better place now. My thoughts and prayers go out to you all. May God bless your Family..
