“ Dear Uncle, My earliest memory was coming to your house in Macbee...in the middle of nowhere. My first real taste of deep country, from a person born in the country. You took me hunting with your boys and hunting dogs, deep in the woods. It was exciting, and scary and awesome all at the same time. I had some of the best memories at that house. You also gave us a place to stay when our family didnt have one. I remember Aunt Joanie making sugar rice for breakfast and I thought it was gross! Oh, and you use to chew that horrible tobacco, snuff, that Curly tried to get me to try. I almost died! Then we moved to Indiana and I never really got to see you guys much after that. You guys have drove hours and hours to help pick us up from other states. My only regret is that I didnt tell you this stuff in person. So thank you Uncle, for everything that youve done for me. I love you. Rest in peace until we meet again....
