“ Aunt Myrtle, cousins Carl and Wilber, and extended family ... our heart felt thoughts and prayers are with you. The greatest legacy we can leave in this world is to have made the difference in the life of a young person. Mr. Weaver certainly did that for many in his work life as principal of Antioch Elementary. I know he did for me as well as many of my classmates. This was the day when disrespect or a need for discipline was addressed with a paddle in the cloak room or Mr. Weaver’s office.

Great appreciation for the long well lived life of Mr. Weaver. Our sincere condolences to his family and caregivers.
