“ I just learned of Connie's passing, Connie and Butch and family. Your Mother (and Mama Ruth) treated David and me like family back in our early days. All those great memories of our beach trips back in the mid 60s where she fed us, made sure we had a good time and made sure we stayed out of trouble. She was so loved by all of us. She will be missed. Our thoughts and prayers are with you during this time.

“ Ms. Connie, I will miss you so. You were a very special lady in my life, especially the last 5 years you were the dearest. I loved taking care of you, Mom and Janice. Going out to eat, bingo, or just taking you all where you needed to go. Connie and I always could laugh at most anything. She gave lots of words of encouragement. Sharp as a tack till the end. I'll always love you! I will never forget your spirit and your spoiled beautiful cat. I'll take your baby if nobody else wants her. Prayers to the family and friends. Heaven has certainly received a wonderful angel. All My Love, Beth

So very sorry to hear about your mom. I enjoyed watching her at the Lakeview Club events, she came out often, when she could, and always had a great time. Once Elvis was in the building and sang to her, she stold the show! Know you are in my thoughts!!

Love you,
Abby
