“ Dear Teresa and family. I am very sad to hear of your loss. I first met Cora when I was a little girl. My mother and I came to her house and she fixed mine and my mother's hair. I used the term fixed, as that was what was said back then. I really enjoyed going there. It felt like such a loving home. Later, we met again at Sara Lee, as we worked in the same department for years. Your mother and father were great people to be around, and so were you and Betty. I hope that you know that you can still talk to your parents and Betty, even though they may not be living on the earth. They can hear you, even your slightest whisper or thought. So when you think of them, just remember all the good things, and you will know they are listening to you! May God bless you during this time and forever!
