

Mrs. Corally McKeon Bacon

March 19, 1945 - November 4, 2023

It is with heavy hearts that we announce the passing of Corally Ann Bacon, a truly remarkable and compassionate woman who dedicated her life to helping others. She departed from this world on November 4, 2023, surrounded by loved ones, leaving behind a legacy of love and selflessness that will forever be cherished.

Born on March 19, 1945, Mrs. Corally was a shining beacon of kindness from an early age. Her unwavering commitment to making the world a better place was evident in everything she did. Whether it was cooking her famous meals, lending a listening ear to those in need, or offering a helping hand to anyone who crossed her path, Mrs. Corally embodied the true spirit of love.

Throughout her life, Mrs. Corally touched the lives of countless people with her boundless love and generosity. She was a loving mother, grandmother, and friend, always ready to provide comfort and support in times of joy and sorrow. Her home was a sanctuary of warmth and hospitality where everyone felt welcomed and cherished.

Mrs. Corally was an active member of her community, devoting her time to helping anyone who needed it. Her acts of kindness knew no bounds, and she inspired those around her to spread love and joy. Her legacy of compassion will continue to inspire generations to come. In addition to her dedication to service, Mrs. Corally had a deep passion for dance and music. Her entire life, she loved to watch and participate in many forms of dancing and singing, even opening her own studio for a while. Her talent bled through and inspired not only her children but her grandchildren's love of dancing and singing.

Corally Ann Bacon leaves behind a loving family, including her sister Colleen Taylor (David Taylor) her three children, Timothy Bacon (Nancy Morton), Angela Chandler, and Anton Bacon (Melissa Bacon), and her seven grandchildren, who will forever hold her memory close to their hearts. Her impact on the lives she touched is immeasurable, and her spirit of kindness will continue to shine through the countless lives she enriched.

As we bid farewell to a truly remarkable soul, let us remember Mrs. Corally for her boundless love, her selflessness, and the enduring legacy of compassion she leaves behind. Her light will continue to guide us as we carry forward the torch of her kindness in our own lives. Rest in peace, dear Corally Ann Bacon.

“ Dear Family, We met John and Corally in Missouri when they both worked for Boise and then Sonoco. They moved to Hartsville when Sonoco purchased Boise. We moved a few months later to Club Colony near John & Corally. Years later Corally asked Vangie to conduct a Bible study at Arbor Place. Vangie & Corally met with a group of residents for 3-4 years. Vangie will always be grateful to Corally for that opportunity in ministry, she considers it a high point in her life. Corally loved everyone and treated everyone the same; her obituary is a tribute to the life that she lived as a Christian disciple.

“ Corally was a faithful stalwart in the church choir for many years, adding her talent and her infectious joy. She continued to be supportive even when she no longer could get up to the balcony - always there and positive. May she be at peace! I am grateful to have known her and considered her a friend.

“ Mrs. Corally was such a beautiful lady both inside and out. She was my greatest inspiration as I found out my father had MS. I would sit with her at Sunday Mass and she always made my day that much happier. Thank you for all the lessons I learned through your advice, your love, patience and your beautiful smile. Rest with God! I'll love you always
