“ Frankie, Johnny, & each family member of Coty, our family can't even start to comprehend this loss & the emotions you are experiencing. Lance, our own son, shares the birth year of 1988 with Coty. We have recalled the memories of their younger years when we saw more of Coty & Johnny & they got to visit with Lance. One particular occasion they decided they were going to camp out in the yard all night. They did & of course as typical of all boys we were left with quite a few yard surprises of our own; never ceased to amaze me the things boys could think up. Know our hearts are heavy too. Love you each & wish we had the ability to change the things that those we share life with have to walk thru.
