“ Dad's Love,

My father said plant these seeds, I lay upon you! I planted many seeds in the past year. They have grown and many have festered. He said many will come and many will say, but most of all son keep your faith and the liars and the thieves will show there selves and will know they are seen. Father you said don't go after the evilest one, because there will be many ways to bring goliath to his or her knee's! I let you know where "my" things are, and let you see who took what! I have gave you copies of my records as so does the Lord. Books that will show deceit, wrong doing and theft. Son I provide you with this to know. Remember son the little ship is lost give them a chance not to drown, we know all can be saved at a cost. What I wanted and asked was my will and all shall see. No less no more than should be. Son he said do not fear for you are fine. Papers hurt but do as I asked not as you wish! Everyone will see the true colors son and I have a date with some balloons.

Thank you dad for keeping things straight at home so I did not have to much work to do after putting you to rest with the LORD. Thank you for the rain I have had each day since. GOD most of all I thank you for your personal message that let me rest with the thought that my dad is top shelf, close to the throne, with many crown's. I waited your 3 and made it 5 LORD, so here it is. The ones that did not do as my dad said or asked will pay, it will be his last say...GOD be with you all. Thank you GOD, Thanks because my cup runneth over. All is well

“ My heart is with all the members of the Watkins family. Even though I didn't know him personally, He has indirectly touched my life beneficially, as well as brought much joy and happiness to people that I consider family.

None of us in D.W.W.'s Modern Age extended family would be where we are without his actions and influences, and for that I am eternally grateful.

A great man that will surely be greatly missed.
