I just found out and this is how....I gave her box for Christmas. A one of a kind box made by my friend Penny's husband and hand painted and autographed by Penn. I stopped at a store and saw the box. I asked the man how did he acquire this box. He told me that a woman that passes in June mom came in and gave her boxes to him. I drove by her house and no one was there and although some of Dana's stuff was present, Dana would of never had her porch looking as it did. So I googled her full name and found her obit. My heart was saddened to discover this news of her passing.
