“ I didn't hear of Danny's passing until today...I am so sorry I wasn't there for his service. I had known Danny for much of my youth and he was a wonderful friend to all. I can remember him giving so many of us rides to anywhere in that big Pontiac he drove in the 60's. I think he would have given the shirt off his back to anyone. He will be remembered with a smile.

Danny and I were a band in the 60's.the TICS... and he was the singer. He was a good singer and a had a great personality. He was a funny fellow that simply enjoyed his youth from what I remembered about Danny. I just found out while looking on the internet and it brought back some fond memories. Sorry for the families loss. God bless Danny and his family. Jim Johnson
