

Mr. Danny Lee Weaver

January 28, 1947 - November 2, 2024

It is with deep sorrow that the Weaver family announces the death of Mr. Danny Lee Weaver, 77.

Mr. Weaver entered into rest on Saturday, November 2, 2024. The Directors of Brown-Pennington-Atkins Funeral Home & Crematory are caring for the family.

A funeral service to honor his life will be held at 3 o'clock on Tuesday, November 5, 2024, in Lakeview Baptist Church, with The Rev. Ken Hughes officiating. The family will receive friends immediately following the service.

Memorials may be made in his honor to the Darlington County Humane Society, P.O. Box 1655, Hartsville, SC 29551, or Lakeview Baptist Church, 202 Lakeview Blvd., Hartsville, SC 29550.

Danny was born on Tuesday, January 28, 1947, in Hartsville, SC. He is the son of the late Troy Edward Weaver and the late Georgia Watt Weaver. He had a lot of friends from all walks of life. In 1965, Danny set records for the high and low hurdles at Hartsville High School that still stood as of 2002. Danny loved to run. Patty would drop him off here in Hartsville, and he would run to Bishopville to Patty's parents' home. He lettered in football and basketball in 1966, and he received an athletic scholarship from Pembroke

College in North Carolina.

After college, he returned to Hartsville and became manager of W. M. Timberlake Oil Company. He joined the National Guard in 1969, retiring in 1989. In 1972, he began working with CP&L as a Radiation Control and Test Technician. Danny retired from the South Carolina National Guard.

In 1989, Danny developed a brain tumor that ruptured, and he was in a coma for over six weeks. During this difficult time, he lost 80 of his 200 pounds, 50% of his sight, the ability to talk and walk. No one thought Danny would recover, but Danny was a fighter, and here we are 35 years later. Although he never recovered 100%, Danny never let that stop him from doing anything, especially his family and socializing.

Because of Danny's love for people and life itself, Danny was invited to join the S. C. Brain Injury Task Force in 1993 and eventually became a board member of the S. C. Brain Injury Leadership Council. Danny had a genuine compassion for his brothers and sisters with physical disabilities. Danny founded the Hartsville Brain Injury Support Group in 2001. There are many members from counties such as Hartsville, Sumter, Lamar, Kershaw, Florence, and Westfield. He also attended the National Independent Living Council in Washington and the National Medicare/Medicaid Conference in Baltimore, MD.

Danny founded the Head and Spinal Cord Injury Group and was a member of the following: the Retired National Guard Group, the Breakfast Booster Club, Lakeview Baptist Church, and the Jaycees. Danny was also a member of the Gamecock fan club, as he was an avid USC and Hartsville football fan.

Although Danny enjoyed his social time at places such as Sam Kendell's, J Micheal's, and Vintage during happy hour with his friends, his family was his main focus. The love he had for his grandchildren was beyond anything else. He enjoyed birthdays, graduations, and as many ballgames as possible for his grandchildren.

He is survived by his loving wife of 51 years, Patricia Black "Patty" Weaver; daughter, Kelli Leigh Weaver of Hartsville, SC; grandsons, Cooper Ellis Bonds of Ridgeland, SC, and McKrea Weaver Ard (Grayson) of Columbia, SC.

He was preceded in death by his parents, Georgia Watt Weaver and Troy Edward Weaver.

Sorry to hear of Danny's passing. Friends since birth. Grew up with one street between us and his grandparents (Watt's). Danny would leave his house to go see them but somehow he always can to our house. Then forget and played with me and my siblings til he heard his mom or grandma calling out his name "DANNY". He knew he was in trouble. Later years he admitted he loved coming by Miss Huggins house cause she always had a biscuit or two. One other thing we talked about in later years. His Dad would take Danny to school and he also would take me to the same school sometimes. Made Danny mad/jealous because he let me sit/stand beside him (dad). His Dad loved it. I really miss all of his family lovely people. And I'll surely will miss Danny as well. See you again one day. Don't get into any trouble, ok. I can hear him now, who me, never.. with a grin. Rest in peace.

“ My condolences to Danny's family and friends as you mourn his loss. I'll share a couple of recollections.

Danny Weaver - A talented and gifted athlete and a loyal friend who was just full of personality, charm, quick wit and mischief.

I got to know Danny when we were 10 years old and on the same Dixie Youth Baseball Team in Hartsville. Those character attributes were identifiable even back then.

I remember one notable incident when we were 12, our Baseball All-Star team traveled to Charleston for the State Championship tournament. We all knew Kent Hungerpillar was the only player on the team who drank coffee at breakfast so what did Danny do? He put salt on top of the sugar dish and replaced the sugar dish on Kent's table with the one he had "Doctored Up". So we are all watching as Kent spooned the "tainted sugar" into his cup, tasted it several times and declared something was wrong with his coffee. Those of us who knew about the prank broke into hysterics at what had happened, Kent tasted the "sugar" in the dish with a finger test and immediately knew it was salt. Mr. Player and Mr. Parker (our coaches) were furious and of course the team got the behavioral/example/Hartsville representative lecture and warnings about future restaurant actions etc.etc.

We served together in the National Guard and was that an everlasting experience. We left Hartsville (Danny, Johnny Newsome and I) on a Greyhound bus for Fort Bragg on January 9th, 1970.

The temperature that morning was 9 degrees-bitterly cold. We had heard all the horror stories about Army Basic Training but really didn't know what was in front of us. Danny talked non-stop all the way to Fayetteville in that fast talking staccato style he had when he was nervous and apprehensive about something. The only time he would stop talking was to take a quick breath between questions. He must have asked me a 1,000 times what I thought it would be like. Once we assimilated into the Army culture, Danny, as was his habit and nature with anyone he didn't know, developed a friendly relationship with his otherwise unfriendly Drill Sergeant. Danny would talk his Drill Sergeant into special privileges or special passes and he always had his Drill Sergeant talk to my Drill Sergeant and I was included in the pass or priveldge too. The loyal friend. The summer encampments were always fun when Danny was around and involved. He never met a stranger and by then he had developed into something of an enigma to some and a quick witted prankster. I will never forget the look on Ed Yarborough's face when Danny would be recounting an event or something he had been involved in. Ed listened closely and intently with a special puzzled look on his face. Ed was a guy who was always "figuring things out" but Danny was always puzzling to him. Ed would tell him that and their dialogue was very interesting.

I think the last time I saw Danny was at Takis restaurant in Darlington. I was having dinner and suddenly a waitress said, "Excuse me sir, the gentleman at the table at the end of the room asked me to give you this". It was a bill for a dinner for two. I turned to see who had sent the ticket to me and there was Danny waving and grinning at me with that big grin and I told her I'd keep the bill and take care of that charity case. He stopped by the table as he was leaving, thanked me for picking up his tab, we exchanged pleasantries etc. and said goodbye. Well, Takis is a restaurant where you take your bill up to the register and someone checks you out etc. Well, lo and behold my dinner had been paid for as well as the bill he had sent over by the waitress.

Indelible memories of a good and loyal friend.

“ Hartsville lost a legend. Danny was one of a kind. A true Red Fox, with an unmatched spirit of protection for those near and dear to him. Deepest condolences to Patty, Kelly and the boys. You and your unique sense of humor (and 3 AM group texts with your entire contact list) will be missed by many. Love you brother. Go rest high on that mountain. We'll take it from here.
