“ We extend our most heartfelt condolences to the Brown family. It is so hard to believe that Dargan has passed on, but God's plan is perfect - though we definitely don't understand. Dargan was such a kindhearted spirit and so much fun to be around. We really enjoyed being with him, as he and George hung out together & played soccer together. He will be missed, but the joy and laughter he spread will always be fondly remembered. It is our prayer that the family be comforted and strengthened by God's peace, during this time and the days to come. Our thoughts and prayers are with you all!!

I know you were saved and what an awesome choice you made to have an everlasting life. We will be celebrating your life in the next few days. Yes we are sad you have left us but look what you have given us all even your family. I always tell me little students that heaven is everything beautiful and happy no sickness or pain. Dear Family,

There are just no words to describe my hurtful heart. Just know that Dargan is fine and wants us to all celebrate the awesome life he had while here on Earth. If he could speak to us, he would probably tell us all about his amazing life in Heaven and for us to "get ready" because it's beyond compare to anything we have ever imagined and he wouldn't come back here, even if he had the chance. He is kicking soccer goals among all the other "soccer" angels and he has reached his most amazing goal ever...HEAVEN!

We are also praying for Amanda and her family and friends, along with Steve Damico's family and friends.

MAY OUR LOVING GOD COMFORT YOU DURING THIS TRAGIC TIME AND GIVE YOU ALL A SENSE OF PEACE IN KNOWING THAT YOUR LOVED ONES ARE WITH HIM.

LOVE ALWAYS, MICHELLE & KEVIN BRAND and FAMILY

“ There's so many memories! Basketball state in Columbia! It was after curfew and you and some of the others were hungry! So y'all decided to break the window at the hotel to throw the money at me! We didn't win but it was and epic weekend for sure. Then there was the soccer State tournament! You tied the game up 1-1. We went into overtime. After overtime it was still tied so we headed to sudden death! We ended up winning and you got an award! I have pictures and you look SO happy! Haha. You were a major goofball. Then we ended up working together. I swear even if I was in a bad mood or whatever you most definitely knew how to put a smile on my face. It was only for a few months but they were some of the best! And our countless nights at Brian's! You doin karaoke was absolutely hilarious! Or when me and momma went to see the Celtics play the Bobcats! You were a Boston fan too and we brought you home a shirt! We were Duke buddies! You'd text me when they were playin like crap and we'd talk about it the rest of the game! The last time I saw you was at the Alumni games and I remember you screaming "hey Heather!" and gave me a hug! What I would do for just one more! Dargan you're missed dearly but I know your in a better place now! RIP sweet boy!??

“ We had countless soccer memories together. When I first met you, we all called you "Sweet Feet." Every single day at practice you always made everyone laugh and made practice fun. Even when it was 102 degrees outside, and we were having to run 8 miles outside of practice, you always were able to see the brighter side of things. You were more than just a teammate who made everyone laugh though.. You stood up for the people in your life. I still remember the day we were playing Marlboro at our place, and one of their guys took a cheap shot on my knee. And before I even had a chance to go get back up, you took the guy on and stood up for me. You and B. Lee both. From that point on, I saw you for who you really were. To everyone, you were more than just a friend.. you were like family to everyone. When times got tough, everyone knew they could come to you for help. We knew we could come to you to cheer us up when we needed a laugh. You were like a brother to me, Dargan, and you'll never be forgotten.. But now you're one step ahead of us. You're walking with Jesus on the streets of gold in Heaven.. You're up there making everyone laugh just like you did here, and I know you're a blessing to the angels just like you were to all of us here. You've had a huge influence to everyone here and have had made memories with each and every person you came in contact with.. and these are memories that we will never forget, and will cherish forever. If they have a team in Heaven, go show the angels how we do it down here! We'll miss you "Sweet Feet!"

“ I remember being on an overnight trip for basketball state and it was me him and me. Geddes in a room, and in the middle of the night I remember him chucking a pillow across the room and hitting mr. Geddes and we just laughed so hard for a good 30 mins. I miss you so much Dargan I still cannot believe you are gone, but God gained one of the most energetic, good humored and outright hilarious angels. Keep them all laughing and smiling up there and keep yours eyes on us down here. Love you buddy!
