“ *David Mathis.
Those who knew him were truly blessed. He was an Iraqi war veteran who served with distinction. He suffered much to serve our nation. The war took its toll on his mind and body, but could not destroy his heart. And he had a huge heart. Always there for a friend in need. He was devoted to his family and selfless in his acts. David., you were not just another customer on my mail route. You were a great friend. Many times we talked. About life. About friends and family. About the world we live in.
Thanks for the memories. Til we meet again dear friend. RIP.*

“ I always had fun with my best buddy. He would bring all of his Markette Girls breakfast. Hang out and talk to us. Zoom through the parking lot on his motorcycle I was lucky enough the we became very good friends. There wasn't anything he wouldnt do for any one. He was always so giving. I loved riding on his bike with him and really just hanging out. I will miss you my replacement husband. I will love you always.
