“ Ricky, Will, and family, My most sincere heartfelt prayers go out to you during this time of great loss in your family. Deb was a magnificent woman who always had time to care and listen to others that needed comfort. Deb touched so many lives with the work that she did and her spirit will forever live on through the lives that she touched. I will always cherish the words in a simple card and the many times that she would share with me words of encouragement and hope during my time of great loss and the beautiful words of memories that Will shared on behalf of my sons memory. Through all of the baseball years with the boys and watching them grow and face their own challenges grew so many friendships and hers is one that will never be forgotten. I pray that God will give you the strength to push through these valley's of darkness and be able to see the light from the precious Angel he just called home. I truly believe that his plan for us is far greater than we can ever know and Deb is continuing her path at his side now to help guide and watch over us until we all meet again. Many prayers to comfort your family.

“ Our very first summer in Hartsville years ago was spent making memories with Deb and her family as we celebrated our boys journey all the way to Dixie World Series in Marshall, Texas. From parades through town to dogpile after joyous dogpile it was a spring and summer full of celebration with her and her wonderful family. One of those hot sticky Marshall, Texas afternoons all the parents spent an afternoon break taking a swamp boat ride to cool off. I'll never forget the name of the town we passed through because we joked about it: "Uncertain, Texas." And this morning, as I watched the mist fade off the beautiful fall trees in our town I was reminded of this: Like the name on the town, so much in our lives is uncertain. But, Deb trusted in the ONE who is certain.....Christ. "Celebrating is only risky if the source of our joy is uncertain...But our Savior King is a strong and certain joy whose presence will never disappoint." (Leigh McLeroy) We will miss her beautiful smile and laugh, but we know she is surely celebrating. Love hugs and prayers for His comfort today, Scott and Lori Huffer, Ben & Jenn, Brett, Bree & Jesy and Brayden and Brooke

“ Dear Rick, Brenda and Lucy and the extended family, On behalf of Embrace Hospice I would like to express a heartfelt sorrow for your loss. Deb was a beautiful lady and she will greatly missed by many. She blessed me, just to hold her hand, sing and pray with her a few times a few weeks ago. Family, we find comfort in the Bible, John chapter 14, Jesus reminds us that in his Father’s house are many mansions; if that were not so, he would have told us and He has gone there to prepare a place for us. Family, this earth is not our home, and we are only passing through this land, so hold on to the promise, for one day we will see our loved ones again. My prayer is that God will continue to hold you close during this time of sorrow and strengthen you all as you press on.
