

Mrs. Dell Graham Lewis

January 1, 1937 - April 25, 2015

Mrs. Lewis died peacefully on Saturday, April 25, 2015. She was a daughter of the late Clayton O. and Annie Ruth Surles Graham. She was a member of Lakeview Baptist Church, the Joy Sunday School Class, and the Northwood Garden Club.

Dell Graham Lewis, beloved wife, sister, mother, grandmother, and great-grandmother, was born and raised in Proctorville, NC. A farmer's daughter; she was also the star of her high school basketball team. At 17 she married her husband of sixty-one years, Wayne Lewis, after they made a promise to her father they would never go to bed angry. She raised her daughters, Tona and Sherry, in the church; teaching Sunday School and GA's. She sang on the church choir, was in the benevolence group and was a beloved member of the Joy Sunday School Class. Her love of the outdoors also kept her a dedicated member of the Northwood Garden Club. Helping to raise her five grandchildren, she spent many summers teaching them swimming, fishing and judging coloring contests. In return, they kept her gardens free of weeds and full of the latest annuals. She also took great joy in each of her nine great-grand children.

Surviving are her husband of 61 years, Wayne Lewis of Hartsville, SC; daughters, Tona (David) Tedder of Hartsville, SC, Sherry Melton of Cheraw, SC; grandchildren, Alexis Tedder (Jonathan) Winburn, Deidre Tedder, Jackie

Wade Melton, Jacob Wayne (Alison) Melton, Bryon Drake (Leslie) Melton; great-grandchildren, Nathan Winburn, Natalie Winburn, Lily Melton, Emalyn Melton, Clayton Melton, Josie Melton, Avery Melton, Hailee Melton, Baylee Melton.

She was preceded in death by her sister, Elaine Graham Purcell, son-in-law, Jackie Melton.

The family would like to say a special thank you to Dr. Kenneth Evans, the staff at Carolina Family Practice, Jeanine Edwards, and Nicole Wright for the love and extraordinary care they provided Mrs. Lewis without fail.

Memorials may be made to Alzheimer's Association SC Chapter, 4124 Clemson Blvd. Suite L, Anderson, SC 29621.
