“ Dear Dick, Word can't express how saddened I am to learn of Diana's death. She was such a pretty, vivacious girl and Mother always loved her so much! I will always remember how kind she was when Mother had her stroke and had to be in a nursing home in Darlington. Diana went to visit her, even though she had lost all ability to "visit" with anyone; and she left a gorgeous orchid corsage on Mother's pillow. She certainly fought the good fight and never gave up the battle. May you find peace in knowing that her suffering will be no more. You and the children will be in my thoughts and prayers in the difficult days ahead. Much love, Rachel##imported-begin##Rachel Adams Doyle Medlin##imported-end##
