“Knowing the grief that you are ALL going through saddens my heart. in psalms chapter 30 it says, "weeping may endure for a night, but joy cometh in the morning." we can all rejoice knowing that Dirk is just now beginning to live. He accepted Christ into His life as a young man and because of his FREE gift, he will live forever.

It's only human for us to miss our loved ones and to be sad, but when we as christians know that there is a better life that awaits us, how can we not rejoice in knowing that Dirk has now paid up for all sins and is now free from all the troubles and trials of this world.

We will see Dirk again one day and only by Gods' Grace can we have comfort in knowing that. So when you feel sad, and want to cry for Dirks passing, Remember to celebrate and to rejoice for the life that Dirk is now living. God bless every single one of you, please know that I am with you and love you all through this time.

My thought and my prayers are continuously going for each one of you, Mother, Father, Sisters, brother, daughter, niece, nephew, cousin, aunts, uncles, friends and all that Dirk knew and loved. I too loved Dirk and have great memories of him. God bless you my family, I love you all.

Mathew 5:4

Blessed are they that mourn: for they shall be comforted.

John 6:39-40

39. And this is the Father's will which hath sent me, that of all which he hath given me I should lose nothing, but should raise it up again at the last day.

40: And this is the will of him that sent me, that every one which seeth the Son, and believeth on him, may have everlasting life: and I will raise him up at the last day.

Dirk has lived his last day here on eart, and is now living everlasting LIFE. Thank you God for that promise... May you seek comfort in God.

Love you all.

“ Dear Lois and Family,
I was sadden to learn of Dirk's death. I well remember when Paul and I first came to Hartsville and we met all the Fields family at Emmanuel Baptist Church. I had the honor being some of the children's Sunday School teacher. Dirk was one of my children like all the rest and each child that was in my class was special. I am always concerned for each child that I have had as they now many have children of their own. At a time like this without the Lord Jesus Christ,only He,can give the comfort that is needed. My love goes out to each of you who are left behind.My prayer to each of you is that your life will shine for Jesus.
