“ Mr. Todd I was so sorry to hear about your daddy. Even though I could'nt be there during your time of sorrow, I prayed for you and your family. My mom tells me all the time that God doesnt make mistakes even though our hearts cry with saddness. Jesus is always with us to carry us through the valleys and back up to the mountain tops.He will be there to hold and comfort you when no one else can ease the pain of missing someone you love. Hold on to your faith and remember Jesus is always there for you. Im still praying for you Mr.Todd. Love Holly Grimbball##imported-begin##Holly Grimbball ##imported-end##

“ I am sorry for your loss. I was at the loading rack behind Don , and he left before me , I then later was one of the first people to come up to the accident scene. I too am a tank driver , so this was a terrible shock for me. I could not believe that I had just seen him at the rack, to find him was very upsetting , I am very very sorry for you all. Please take care.##imported-begin##Danny Bentley##imported-end##

“The Rose Beyond the Wall”

Near shady wall a rose once grew, budded & blossomed in God's free light, watered & fed by morning dew, shedding its sweetness day & night.

As it grew & blossomed fair & tall, slowly rising to loftier height, it came to a crevice in the wall through which there shone a beam of light.

Onward it crept with added strength with never a thought of fear or pride, it followed the light through the crevice's length and unfolded itself on the other side.

The light, the dew, the broadening view were found the same as they were before, and it lost itself in beauties new, breathing its fragrance more & more.

Shall claim of death cause us to grieve and make our courage faint & fall? Nay! Let us faith and hope receive – The Rose still grows beyond the wall, scattering fragrance far & wide just as it did in days of yore, just as it did on the other side, just as it will forevermore.

“ We were very sadden when we seen the Announment in the paper.
We could say it will get easier however, we all just learn to adjust to it. Always remember God doesn't make mistakes and we are going to leave this sinful earth at his time not ours. We have been knowing you for a long time so we feel that Mr.Don and MEMA(Doris)are catching up on things up there in heaven. Our prayers are with you.

“ Louise, Todd, I am so deeply saddened about the Loss of your relative. "Uncle" Don as I remembered him has been truly an inspiration to every one who knew him from writing Gospel Songs or just fellowshiping around the table. He was a special kind of person that loved people. I will always cherish the memories I had of him when we'd all travel to some of the Gospel singings and helping load and unload the Equipment!. My prayers are with you and your family. I love all of you like you are my own flesh and Blood! And Like 'Mama Louise" would sing; She'll "Meet him by the river" one day soon. Love and prayers from the bottom of my heart.
