There was never a silence when he was in the room! I loved hearing his stories. You could count on him for the truth and a little bit more.

Donnie and his brother Dougie were friends of mine when we were growing up in a little place called Cornwall, Va. I was fond of both of them. Stayed in touch with Donnie through his cousin Jim Jenkins. He visited me several years ago and we had such a good time talking about days gone by. Will miss him.

scotty not only was he my dad but was my best friend. We would go to Daytona not to watch the race but camp out and drink beer. I have so many good memories, that i could go on forever. Will miss him everyday and love my dad for a lifetime.
