

Mrs. Donna Corbett Sloan

March 24, 1961 - November 11, 2014

Funeral services for Donna Corbett Sloan, 53, will be held at eleven a.m., Friday, November 14, 2014 at Welsh Neck Baptist Church in Society Hill, SC. Reverend William Parker will officiate. A graveside service will be held at four p.m. at Salem Baptist Church Cemetery in North, SC, officiated by Reverend Eric Sloan.

Mrs. Sloan will lie in state for the hour preceding each service. The family will receive friends in the Welsh Neck sanctuary immediately following the eleven a.m. service.

In lieu of flowers, memorials may be made to Welsh Neck Baptist Church in Society Hill, or the Juvenile Diabetes Research Foundation. Mrs. Sloan, wife of Reverend Walter Eric Sloan, passed away peacefully on Tuesday, November eleventh with her family and friends at her bedside.

Born in Orangeburg, SC to the late Laurie Benjamin "Bill" and the late Barbara Reed Corbett, Mrs. Sloan was the youngest of four children. She was recognized as an Outstanding Graduate and Valedictorian of her graduating class at North High School. Named a President's Scholar at Charleston Southern University, she continued her studies at Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary.

She married the Reverend Walter Eric Sloan in 1984 and was a proud mother to her two sons. She fostered and mentored many young people, making differences in many lives.

Always an active member in church and a devout Christian, Mrs. Sloan has served in ministry alongside her husband. Throughout the years, she has served various roles in different churches including youth minister, church secretary, and choir director. She is a member of Welsh Neck Baptist Church.

Mrs. Sloan was a cheerful and compassionate soul with a passion for music. Often performing in her church, Mrs. Sloan was a gifted musician and composer. She enjoyed both directing and singing in her church choir. Known for her quick wit and good-natured jokes, Mrs. Sloan enjoyed making people laugh. Fascinated with different cultures and foreign places, she was a collector of world coins. She enjoyed wood carving as a hobby and could turn small pieces of wood into beautiful treasures. An avid reader, Mrs. Sloan immersed herself in stories of all genres and subjects. She read an average of one hundred books a year. She also took a special interest in researching family history and genealogy—tracing her family lineage back to some of the earliest known records.

Mrs. Sloan is survived by her husband, Reverend W. Eric Sloan; sons, Nathan of Columbia and Matthew of Society Hill; sisters, Laurietta Bickley and Janet Peele of North; nieces, Melanie Bickley of Asheville and Deanne Peele of North; and nephews, Todd and Lance Peele also of North. She is also survived by her embraced-as-a-daughter, Stephanie Davis, and her children, Caleb, Kaden, and Bennie Davis of Swansea. She is predeceased by her brother, Dean.

“ Mom, you were the most kind, caring, loving, and generous person I have ever known. You have touched the lives of so many people. You have forever changed the lives of me and your grandchildren for the better and we are so thankful for the time that God allowed us to spend with you before calling you home. You said that “Sometimes God puts people in our lives for a season and sometimes for longer periods.” Now he has called you home but I know that you are in heaven watching over all of us and you are no longer in pain, which I am thankful for but it is still hard right now. However, I love what you use to tell me “Well if it ain’t all right it will be all right.” I will remember all the things that you taught me like when I feel like I am alone that I am not because God is always with me, how kind you were to me, how you loved me unconditionally and I will pass that on to my children as well, how you use to answer my children with a yes my precious or why certainly, my late nigh papers getting them proof read by you, the beach trip we took, and the tears and laughs we shared together, but most all mom I will just miss you. I will hold out hope that I will be with you again someday soon. Love your Daughter, Stephanie Davis.
P.S. To my Dad Eric, and my brothers Mathew and Nathan and the rest of the family I love you guys and offer my condolences. I was adopted into this family and I could not have asked for a nicer blessing than this. My children and I love you and offer our condolences to each and every one of you. We love all of you. May God be with you during this time. Donna has said to me “If the Lord will lead you to it the Lord will see you through it.” Love in Christ, Stephanie, Bennie, Kaleb, Kaden.

“ Dear Rev. Eric Sloan and family,.. May God wrap His loving arms around you as you grieve the loss of your wife. Though we grieve because of our love for our family members, we can also rejoice knowing that Donna knew her Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ and she has make that trip to be in that eternal home prepared for those who trust in Him. Our thoughts and prayers are with you and your sons.

“ Eric, Nathan, Matthew and family, we all loved Donna. She was a happy-go-lucky inspiration to all of us. Donna was so talented, she had one of the most beautiful voices I have ever heard. I could tell that she didn't feel good but I never heard her complain, not even once. My family loved her and will continue to pray for you guys. If any of you need anything I am just a phone call away.

Eric, It is difficult to search for the proper words to convey what Donna has meant to us as a family and to the church. She was so gentle and kind. She was enduring, she had a contagious smile and such an even temperament. To know Donna was to know love. She left a great legacy. We are praying for you and the boys. So sorry for your loss.

Eric, Matthew and Nathan...my prayers are with you. I have so many wonderful memories of Donna in rehearsals, laughter at her rehearsal pranks, and ministering together. Her wickedly funny sense of humor, and her heart to serve the Lord and to please Him are things I remember most. I am so sorry for your loss.

*Eric, Matthew and Nathan, All of us in your Church Family feel this tremendous earthly loss right along with you. It seems so sad that she was taken from you so early. But, now, Donna is "WALKING WITH HER MASTER" sharing her special Witty talent with "HIM". Heaven is a little brighter today and the Heavenly Chorus Is a little more harmonized. She is well now!!
We love you and your family and are here for you. GOD be with you!!

ERIC, MATTHEW, AND .NATHAN, WE WERE SORRY TO HEAR OF DONNA'S DEATH. ALL OF OUR MEMORIES FROM OUR FIRST TIME SERVING AT HUNTING ISLAND ALWAYS BRING UP SWEET MEMORIES OF Y'ALL. THE TIME ON THE BEACH WHEN THE BOYS KEPT GETTING ROLLED OVER IN THE WATER AND THE "IT'S NOT FUNNY' WHEN WE ALL GOT TICKLED . LONG TIME AGO BUT WE REMEMBER YOUR FAMILY WITH LOVE. MAY GOD GRANT YOU ALL THE PEACE AND COMFORT ONLY HE CAN GIVE AT THIS TIME. LOVE AND PRAYERS,
