“ Doris Jean Chapman was a very dear Christian lady. always so friendly and concerned for others. I attended T'ville Church of God with her for many years. Always loved to hear her "amen" sound out when the pastor was preaching. Just a wonderful person. May God bless the family. Linda Scott

“ Doris was my dads sister. We lived in Lawton, Ok and I always thoroughly enjoyed it when we would go to S.C. and visist in the summer or she and her family would come to Oklahoma.I have lots of great memories of those times. Aunt Doris had a great laugh and she really enjoyed her family. I will miss her, but I know she is in heaven with God. I love ya'll. Patricia McCaig Wood

“ I've thought about Doris Jean many times since I retired and sent her a note over a year ago and I hope she got it. She certainly was a good girl, loved people, her family, and a special grandson who worked briefly at Olive Garden. I remember her being so strong when my buddy Luther had his accident. She had what we call a small home today and she had a happy home. I enjoyed sitting with her and finding out how she and Luther met. For some reason I thought she came from Oklahoma, not Texas, but maybe she had family in both states. Regardless, she was happy in T'ville. What a big, beautiful smile and a heart of gold. I wondered what ever happened to her. Now I know. God called her to be with Him and Luther and she could not be happier or more healthy today. Both set a wonderful example on how to live. May each of yall take full advantage of that and be thankful. Like so many of your friends, I will be away Wednesday and Thursday and will be unable to be with you. My thoughts and prayers will be with you in the coming days....just remember she's at peace and with the two best friends she ever had!
