We are so sorry to hear that Dottie has passed on but I know that she is walking on streets of gold now and singing in a heavenly choir. She was such a sweet and joyful person, a delight to be around even when she was in pain. She will be greatly missed by all that knew her and she touched many peoples lives while she was on this earth. Her work was done here on earth but we will surely miss her beautiful smile and soul but will always cherish her because she has left us with loving memories of her.
