“ Alice, Teri.....I am so sorry for the loss you are suffering. To know Bud was to love Bud. He was my little ray of sunshine and could make me smile on days I didn't want to. Jokes were always plentiful and the way he talked about the two of you left no doubt that both of you were his life. I will miss him as much as anyone. We helped one another through a lot. He was my "go to" man. He always had good advice. You may not have always liked it but he would tell you like it was and he was a very wise man. I love you both. Always just a phone call away.

“ I will miss Bud very much. He was always there for a joke, a laugh or two and he was my ray of sunshine. He could make me smile even on the worst of days. The office will never be the same just knowing he will never be back. He influenced so many people's lives. Many thought the world of Bud. Rip Bud. You can be happy and healthy now. We will all miss you so much.

“ Who in Hartsville didn't know Mr. Bud. He was always the same, no pretend. He always asked about you or a family member. He was plain and simple Bud. Ballgames and coffee shops held his name dear. He never wanted to impose in others . After I opened my shop in the Cannon building I saw Mr. Bud more and more. I saw him fall in the parking lot one day and helped him and git him help. There he was lying down, injured and apologizing for taking up my time. That day was the first time I saw him in a new light, but he was showing concern for me even while he was injured. He was a good man and I will miss his presence in my building and town.
