“ Jackie, Norma, Gerald and Wil,
I was very saddened to hear about your mom and grandmother. I thoroughly enjoyed working with her. My granddaughter Brooke often accompanied us on our outings to Bojangle's. It just made her day to hear Brooke sing. She was so fond of her. We always called her Mrs. Sellers. She would jokingly tell me to call her Edith Bunker, so I said that I would just call her Edith. She was such a jovial person and knew how to make every one laugh. Edith was the type of person who always put others before herself. I will always remember her as a very thoughtful and caring person who loved her children, family and friends. She was very saddened by the loss of her son Wilson. There was only a few days that I worked with her that she didn't mention his name. She will be sadly missed. My deepest sympathies go to all the family.##imported-begin##Bennie Lou Teal##imported-end##
