Uncle E.C. , was always so caring and loved when me and my family came to visit him and Aunt Ruby.
I remember the last I got to visit was when I was with my Aunt Essie. That's his one of his sister's. We were in the neighborhood just looking and taking pictures since I didn't live in South Carolina at the time. East Texas is my home state so I had to make my stop by Uncle E.C. Jacobs to visit him to catch up on the old times. 😊 And we sure did! That I'm great for.
Uncle E.C. will be greatly missed. R.I.P. Uncle E.C.
I love 💜 You always! Go ride your waves 🌊 of PRAISES! 😊

“ Ms. Ruby and Mr. EC were the best next door neighbors for 15 years on Green Street. Mr. EC was the kindest, sweetest man. He always made you feel welcome. So many memories of this wonderful family. Prayers to the entire family, especially my little playmate Tonda, Lorraine and my sweet precious friend Lori and extended family. Lifting you all up in prayer. I can just see Ms. Ruby's face when her beloved EC met her in heaven. Makes me smile.
