“ Dear Mrs Matuse, I am so sorry to learn of your son's death. He was so sweet to me and my Mon who has been at Morrell's for the past 5 years. I would take my Mom out side and around the hallways in her wheelchair just about everyday and each time I'd run into you son he would speak to me. He'd tell me he hardly recognized me without the wheelchair, when I didn't have my Mon. We would laugh, talk about the weather. He was a kind soul and I will miss him. I am sadden for your loss.
