“ To each of you I would like to express my deepest sympathy. Eleanor was a wonderful person who offered so much more to life than she took from it. Often the people we meet in life only affect us while we are fortunate to being interacting with each other. I cannot say that about Eleanor. I met Eleanor while serving on the staff at Swift Creek Baptist Church and the impact she had on my life is still in the forefront of who I am as a person. We visited the church community often and most of the time it was I what was getting ministered to. Her sweet spirit and a true desire to serve God will always stand out in my mind! To the memory of ELEANOR WHITE, Thank you for being both an example and an inspiration and being so humble about it all!##imported-begin##Brian Gandy##imported-end##

“ Billy, Jimmy & families,
We know how difficult this is for each of you. We will all miss her. Eleanor & Boots were lovely neighbors. Her life was dedicated to doing for others.
Your Mom would often come up the path through the woods to visit. Our children loved to go next door to see her. Miss Eleanor would always be sure that Boots had Coca Colas in the house for them. Our thoughts and prayers are with you.##imported-begin##John, Barbara, Robby, Danny & Paola Bonanno##imported-end##

I am so sorry to hear about your mother. She was a fine lady. I will miss my visits with her at Morrell's.
She is now pain free and with the heavenly Father. I know my mom was there to greet her. It's very hard to loose your mother but at least you know she is in a better place.
