“ It seems just like yesterday when I got to spend time with Liz when she made the long trip from SC to Germantown, TN to show in the Germantown Charity Horse Show. I remember her and Lesley coming out to watch me show as a teenager, but this time I got to see her show her new horse, Niner! I was so excited when this new team won the overall Championship in a really tough division with lots of competitors. She was all smiles and so beautiful, full of life, and independent. I admired her spunk and genuine kindness! Liz and I had a lot in common- both of us being the oldest sisters, both having a crazy love and appreciation for horses that we just understood in each other.... I will think of her often when with my horses and smile knowing that she is the one person I know as horse crazy as me!

May your spirit soar as you ride on in Heaven Liz. I hope to go for a gallop with you when we meet again!

My heart and prayers are with her dear parents and family. I am so very sorry for your heartbreaking loss. Love, Ashlee Pigford

“ It is an honor to have had Elizabeth as a good friend. I have such deep admiration of her courage and strength and pray we all learn from her example. We shared a common passion and love for our four-legged children and will miss her stories about (stubborn) Will. I send up prayers for her family and closest friends [Claudette, Marie, Jeff, Clara] that God will sustain you all and allow you to draw on the wonderful memories you have of Elizabeth.

“ I am sorry to hear of your loss. The death of a loved one is one of the most difficult experiences a human can face. At times, the loss can seem unbearable. The Bible teaches; "God is close to the brokenhearted." It also says; 'Throw your burden on God and he will sustain you.' (Psalms 34:18 and 55;22) I hope this message will help you cope with the loss of your loved one.
