“ Though miles separate us, my pain is intertwine with yours. We are family and that bond transcends all barriers, distance and time. My love for Aunt Lib is 47 years old. Her memory and the lessons she taught me in life are forever etched in my heart. She is with Uncle Bobby now. She once told me, as I was complaining about having to fix dinner..."There isn't anything I wouldn't give to be able to fix dinner for Bobby one more time". Needless to say I quit complaining. I will always Love her. She is an important part of the tapestry of my life. Love to you all My Family!##imported-begin##Lynda McGrew Dyas##imported-end##

“ Bob,

I'm so sorry about your mom. I was just sitting here remembering the times we used to play at your house after school when we were kids. Your mom was such a sweet lady! Please know that you are in my thoughts and prayers.

“ Dear Bob, Manly and Sandra, Naomi and John, Elsie, Dora, Floogie and others: Our hearts and prayers are with you all. We loved "Miss Elizabeth" so much and have missed her greatly. She was always so quiet and serene in her love of others. She had a sense of peace in her that is so seldom seen in our present generation. We will miss her as I'm sure each of you will. I know her family and her church family were the love of her life. How hard it is for us to let a loved one go, but we envy the peaceful place where "Miss" Elizabeth is today. At last Miss Ruth, Rob and Miss Elizabeth are together and what a joyous reunion she's had with them. Can't you just imagine the smile on her face when she saw her Mother and Rob! Keep that in mind as you mourn you loss which is truly her gain. We love you all!###imported-begin###Gayle and Billy McDonald###imported-end##
