“ I just wanted to let you know that you were in my thoughts and prayers! I tell you this is just a hard time for us all right now! For a loved one to be here one day and gone the next is so hard no matter how much you try to get ready for it! Just trust in the Lord and he will guide you! One foot in front of the other and one day at a time that is all we can do! Love Dori###imported-begin###Dori Goff White###imported-end##

“ Charles and Lynn,
There are many words of comfort at a time such as this and they are all meaningful, but the most important words are those of our Lord who says He will never leave or forsake us and that it is in times such as these that He will hold & carry us in His arms. Here in His arms is where we find the peace and comfort to sustain us -always.

I love you both very much and you know that I am here for you anytime day or night, just as you have been for me.

Granny Lee's was a life well lived and we were blessed to have known her.

See you soon, Denise###imported-begin###Denise###imported-end##

“ Dixie, Charles, and Family,
I truly know your feelings as I have also lost my best friend on the same day as you. It is still hard to believe it is real. I just can't imagine my life without her in it but God holds the time table and only He knows what is best. I know that you feel as I do when I say I didn't want my mother to suffer anymore and I was willing for her to be at peace. This is one of the hardest things I have faced but you, just like me and my family, will get through this with the strength and love of God. Stay strong, love each other as it is the last day and remember we are holding you up in our prayers.
Love in Christ,
