“ To the family of Woody, I am truly so sorry for y'all lost. He was a loving and very caring person. I met Woody in 2002 at the Family Mart store, on his motorcycle, he loved his bike. But most of all, he loved his family. I just can't believe he's gone.

“ Mr. Beshear was a fine fellow. We would see him once a year when he would come in to our office and would usually stay an hour or so just talking. We are going to miss the visits and his great sense of humor. We will pray for the family in this time of great sorrow.
