*Miss Emily no one could ever wear a hat like you. May you be parading your hat fashion in Heaven. My favorite memory of you was in Summer camp at Emmanuel when to cut your bangs. Coach Hill and I experienced your playful and beautiful smile that summer. Mainly I remember the love you had for your brother and sister
Not many siblings can say that their sister loves them to the mom and back.*

To Emily's family I pray that the strength the Lord gives you will be powerful in the days and months to come. Thank you for allowing me and the staff at Emmanuel be part of Emily's life.

“ Not a day comes by where I don't think of you. In fact, it's hard for me to go to familiar places or see familiar things that trigger memories of you without me about to burst into tears. Especially big milestones like graduation, Prom, or going to tech/college make me think: Emily should be here. And even though you technically are, I still wish that I could somehow remove whatever condition that took you away. I wish that I had spent more time with you before hand, I wish that you knew how much you meant to me before you left. You will always be special to me and I will never forget you nor stop missing you.

This is hard for me to actually try to believe this even happened. Emily was too young, she had so much potential I still don't understand why or how this happened but from all those years at school and at sleepovers... She was my best friend- she still is actually. I can't imagine what her family feels and no words can describe how I feel. I can just say this:

R.I.P Emily Jacobs

I hope you're laughing right with Daniel Kyre.

“ I wasn't overly close to Emily, but I saw her and hung out with her at school. She always knew what to say to make the people around her. She was an amazing person.

“ I met Emily last year; she and my girlfriend Christina were close friends. During that school year, Andrew, Christina, and I ate lunch with Emily every day. The thing I remember most about her is her laugh- it seemed like she never stopped. It pains me to know that she'll never laugh at one of my jokes again. To all of her family, my heart goes out to you. I pray that she may rest in peace.

“ Emily was a great kid, I was friends with her during her freshman year. Everyone loved her and she was so kind and caring. She cared so much about her friends and she constantly worried about others. She never deserved this, and I don't know if there I a god, but if there is, he has sent her to heaven.

“ Emily was such a sweet and caring soul. She was always polite, respectful and helpful while a student at HMS. She was very conscientious about her work and loved to read. I enjoyed getting to know her and looked forward to seeing her smile. The year she was in 8th grade we experienced a tough year but we got through it and I developed a very strong bond with her and the rest of her class. My condolences to her entire family. You will be in my thoughts and prayers in the days ahead. Emily, please tell Dr. Deb I said hello!

No words can ever express how sorry I am. I remember Emily as a cute 4 year old all bubbly and smiling. She was good friends with my son as s little girl at Emmanual. Last year at a school event she came bounding over with a big smile and greeted me with recognition. Her smile will be soooo missed. She was a good friend to many kids. Always kind.
