A beautiful tribute to a beautiful young woman. I wish I had known her, Marion. I am so sorry for your loss as you near the anniversary. My youngest did a little barrel racing briefly in her horse competitions. That is tough stuff! Your daughter was an amazing horse woman. Again, I so wish I'd seen and known her. Jessica has two horses at their home in metro Nashville. She rides when she has time around her job as a metro police captain and being a wife and mother to an active Boy Scout. Blessed.

“ Erica was a very special person, she was my farm sitter and my friend. I've never met a more hard working, attentive person to my animlas, farm & airbnbs than Erica. She was always smiling when she would walk in to see me. Her positive outlook was contagious. I was reflecting last night on our time together (we did a ton of work together this year) and I saw a beautiful hummingbird in my garden where she laid all of my mulch earlier this spring. I know it was her saying, “Everything will be okay” I am sending prayers to her family.
