“I have many childhood memories of Mrs. Betty & Preacher Griggs from when I attended church with my grandpa John Ellis Wilhelm. Every time I saw them, they were always so happy & a pleasure to be around. They truly earned their wings. They both, were good Christian people whom the world certainly needs more of. I'm grateful to have known them.”

“ We will miss Ms. Betty so much at Lake Swamp. She was a beautiful woman and an avid prayer warrior! My young Sunday School class will miss her stopping by and telling them she is praying for us. She prayed for so many people in our church and we were so blessed by her. We loved her with a grateful heart.

“ P. Ed and Mrs. Betty were such wonderful Christians, you could so feel God's presence when you were around them. When they were our Pastor, Mrs Betty would play the organ and I would play the piano. So now they are with their darling now in the presence of God. Much love Mrs. Betty. See you again one day.
