“ To the family of Eva,

I realize you don't know me but I am a daughter of the late James A. Heniford of Loris. I never knew McDuffie or his family as they were much older than I but remember hearing the name when I was a child and knew that they were part of the Heniford family. I was searching for another obituary when I saw this on the funeral home's website. So sorry to hear of your loss and may God richly bless and give you peace during this your time of sorrow and always is my prayer. You may contact me if so desired. Evelyn Heniford Sellers, P. O. “ We send our condolences to Eva's family. We remember her fondly as a neighbor in Willow Oak Park. These memories of Eva and Jim and their love of their garden and flowers remain with us even as we drive by their former home on Holly Drive. Both Eva and Jim gave so much to our schools here in Hartsville and were good examples to all who knew them. May all of her family take comfort in your own memories of this wonderful woman.
