I can not believe you posted anything on Michaels site. You took every last dime he had. Threw his clothes outside and took his car. Paid child support for your children. Do not post anything else! The funeral home knows to delete it.

Liz you are like a me but very quiet until you need to say something. I love you and Ron. You more than Ron of course.

You are very correct. Michael loved like no one could ever even imagine. He loved his wife Mrs. Nina Joann Steen really more than life itself. He was all about our country's freedom and certainly paid the price. His body just was in so much pain the good lord said enough Everett Michael Steen, it is time to come home.

“ The world has truly lost a kind hearted man. Every time I saw Michael he was always smiling and exuding such a warmth you couldn't help but like him. He touched many lives and and I am grateful to have known him

Thank you Dean. He was a one of a kind person that I met when I was very, very young. When we married your mom and David Jones were in the wedding party. Your dad at the time told Michael that he had a corvette in the parking lot and told him he would give him the keys if he wanted to leave. Michael told him NO THANK YOU!!!
