“ *Nancy & family,
Tom & I are so very sorry for your loss. Everett was a great guy, always fun to be around, and jovial. I enjoyed working for him on Wednesday so he could play golf, and always liked being on his golf scramble team on Friday nights years ago. I regret that I will be unable to attend his services because I am on a mission trip. Our thoughts and prayers are with you and you have our deepest sympathy. Love, Cecelia*

*To Nancy and Family, If you were to ask all of the older pharmacist in Hartsville and all of the area that knew Everett, Who they would choose to be their pharmacist, it would be unanimous that Everett would be chosen. His integrity, wisdom and soft spoken ways of a lifetime of working and serving the public will be greatly missed! Most sincerely,
Bart and Janet Norwood*
