Sincere condolences to Mrs Jean and the entire Crowley family on the loss of Mr Crowley. He was a fine gentleman and one of the best in the plumbing business. When he did a job it was done right . I am glad I got the opportunity to meet him and know him through my mother. God be with all of you in the days, weeks and months ahead as you mourn his loss and his presences. May the memories you have shared console you as you move forward in life. Special condolence to Jeanne (my former co-worker)and her family. Sorrowfully submitted, Cynthia Dickey-McCall and family.

“ I met Junior in 2010 when he and his company re-did the plumbing in our house renovation on West Home Ave. Before the first day I asked Junior what time he wanted to start, he said "First thing". So I said, ok, 8:00 it is. Junior said "Well, if you want to start that late. How about 7:30?" Again, I said ok. I got to the job site at 7:15 and there was Junior, sitting on our front steps, eating his Lance Peanut Butter and Honey crackers. He was a good man. My condolences to Jean and Chester, all good people.
