“ Ms. Faye was a supportive, loving friend and confidante of mine for most of my life. She guided me as a young girl and helped form me in to the woman I am today. There are not enough words of love, praise, and sheer admiration that I can say about her right now. She was physically with me when I buried both of my parents and was with me in spirit when I gave birth to my son, Raeden, who also adores her. She has been a part of every major milestone in my life and I miss her so much already. Rest easy, my forever friend. And please give Mr. Bucky a kiss from me! 💕💕

“ Angie, Woody, and Family,
Ms. Faye was a very sweet caring lady. I enjoyed talking to her. She would call work and Angie would be out so she would chat with me. She loved each of you dearly. She told me many times how much she appreciated everything you did for her. She was proud of her children and grandchildren. I know from experience that this path you are going to have to travel is not going to be easy. Cherish your memories and remember she would want each of you to be happy and live your life. She's not suffering anymore. She's having a happy reunion with Mr. Bucky and all her family members that are in heaven. I will be keeping your family in my prayers. Angie Bateman McLaughlin
