“ Mrs. Yarborough, or as I called her 'Mama Yarborough', was the kindest soul I have ever known in my life. She gave me love and respect and enjoyed playing with my grandsons when they were little. I am heartbroken, but I know she is with her husband, who always asked me to sing anything by Patsy Cline for him. Hartsville is a sadder place now that she is no longer with us. My heartfelt condolences, and my tears, are for her family she has left behind.
