“ What a privilege it was to know Flossie. She was definitely an influence in my life. What a good Christian example she set for us all and she had a voice like an angel. I loved singing with her in the Wesley choir. She will be missed by all who knew her and the world will be without one of its everyday saints. God Bless you, Chip and know that we will all be praying for you.

“ I am so very sorry to hear of Mrs. Flossie's passing.....I feel I have known her for a long time since my parents built across the street from her and. Mr. Wells in 1964. Although I have come to know her much more since joining Wesley Methodist about ten years ago. I loved Mrs. Flossie and will miss her . She was a very unique person with a wonderful, warm heart for others. My deepest sympathy to you Chip and your family.
