“ Though I have known Mr. Chitty for a tiny piece of his life, the impact on my life will be visible for years to come. The time he spent with those closest to him certainly sets a towering example for those he left behind. I truly feel honored to have crossed paths with him and all his laughter and wisdom. I loved and will dearly miss, Mr. "Witty" Chitty.##imported-begin##Lex McArthur##imported-end##

“ AWAY

*I CAN not say, and I will not say
That he is dead; He is just away!*

*With a Cheery smile, and a wave of the hand,
He has wandered into an unknown land,*

*And left us dreaming how very fair
It needs must be, since he lingers there.*

*And you; O you, who the wildest yearn
For the old-time step and the glad return.*

*Think of him faring on, as dear
In the love of There as the love of here;*

*And loyal still, as he gave the blows
Of his warrior-strength to his country's foes.*

*Mild and gentle, as he was brave,
When the Sweetest love of his life he gave*

*To simple things; Where the violets grew
Blue as the eyes they were likened to,*

*The touches of his hands have strayed
As reverently as his lips have prayed:*

*When the little brown thrush that harshly chirred
Was dear to him as the mocking-bird;*

*And he pitied as much as a man in pain
A writhing honey-bee wet with rain.*

Think of him still as the same, I say:

He is not dead; he is just away!

“ "Bo" was a wonderful friend and will be very much missed. He was a true Citadel Man in every sense of the word. I will miss having Sunday lunch with him when I was able to be in Hartsville, and having him tailgate with us at football games at The Citadel##imported-begin##Charlie Burnside '65 NC Director CAA##imported-end##

“ I was greatly saddened to hear of Mr.Chitty's passing away. He was a very special man; and, although I only knew him a little over four years, he greatly impacted my life. I was first introduced to him as he "convinced" me that the Citadel was the college for me. I have to admit that after three and a half years he was right. He constantly checked up on me throughout the years and even already knew how things were going at school before I could get home for one of our many visits. Somehow, he even knew how I was doing academically before anyone else. I visited everytime I had a chance to come home and I learned so much from our friendship. More importantly, however, he became a grandfather figure and really helped me through tough times when my father passed away. I thank God everyday that he came into my life and its amazing how many other people I personally know that he touched their lives as well. He always kept up with his "Citadel boys" and we alone span through several decades of people he has touched. I am praying for all family and friends... May God Bless you all.

“ Generations of "Little League" players are in debt to "Bo" Chitty; In the mid 1950's he was instrumental in bringing Little League baseball to Hartsville.

Also Bo was a treasured friend of my father. They played many hours of golf together.

May he rest in peace.###imported-begin##Robert W. Shirley##imported-end##

“ Bo was a good friend and golfing buddy of my father, Neil McDonald, and also a friend to me. I really enjoyed knowing Bo and playing golf with him and my father on several occasions during my visits back home in Hartsville. He was a special man who will be greatly missed by everyone. We are all better off for having known Bo Chitty, who was truly a one-of-a-kind gentleman.##imported-begin##John McDonald##imported-end##

“ I'm very sorry to hear of the passing of Mr Chitty, he was - and still is - a very special man to all Citadel graduates from Hartsville. He had an uncanny way of always knowing how you were doing at the Citadel, both academically and in the Corps. Additionally, in the years since graduation - whenever I was visiting home from my career as a Marine Officer - he was usually one of the first to check-up on me and ensure things were going well. He will be missed by all. My thoughts and prayers are with his family during this time. Respectfully,
