“ Toni and I besides being first cousins, had a lot more in common that most of the family never knew. She was special. She understood me and my problems and feelings as I understood hers. Though with the years we grew apart, I know if I ever needed you, you were there. Godspeed my friend and cousin, love you, see you soon.

“ Toni was my first cousin--we were born one week apart. So sad to get this news this morning. Although we didn't live in the same town, we were still close to each other. Our Moms were very close. Sure praying for the family. Hopefully, I would love to make it to Hartsville for the service.
