“ We would like to express our deepest sympathy. May it bring comfort knowing that other cares about your loss. Every tear we shed does not escape our loving heavenly notice. At Revelation 21:4, ' and he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning, nor outcry, nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away". Just imagine a time when the ones we loved will once again be with you and their will no longer be any reason to cry. may these words comfort all.

“ Dear Edie,

Words cannot express the loss of your mother. I know she was always there for you when you were young and that continued through your adult life. Remember the good times and the joy she brought to your life. Now that she is in heaven you have a Guardian Angel looking down on you to protect you.

You are in my thoughts and prayers. Janet Wilmoth - Lend Leae

“ Dear Edie,

I was so sorry to hear of the passing of your Mom. Whenever I think of her I always see her smile. Surely she was greeted in heaven by a loving God waiting to give her the peace and comfort she has been without these past few years. She and Momma are both at peace after long struggles. I hope you, Eddie, your sisters and your whole family find comfort in knowing she is resting peacefully in God's loving arms. Know that you are in our thoughts and prayers always. “ To my beloved Mother: You were always there for us, doing without for yourself so that we kids could have more. Forgive me for scaring you with rubber spiders, snakes, and bugs when I was a child. You are at peace now and for that I am happy for. No more suffering for you Mom.

The last couple of years have been tough. I began to miss our time together when you were no longer able to travel, going store to store and stopping at the Cafe for Banana Pudding and coffee. Those were fun times Mom. You are my Angel. I Love you!
