“ Dear Russ and family,
Please accept our heartfelt condolence at this time of temporary parting as Frances has crossed the bar and awaits us on the other shore.
It was our sincere pleasure to have many opportunities to share our faith together during our reunions of the Citadel band of brothers and sisters. Her faith was always evident as she shared during these times.
I know you are assured in that fact and that you know she will be there to greet you as you reach come into the presence of our Lord and Savior in that mansion He has prepared for each of us in our Heavenly Home.
May God give you His peace that passes all understanding as well as the strength to move forward in faith to perform the purposes on earth that He has designed for each of us.##imported-begin##Margaret and Al Eads##imported-end##
