From the first time I met Fred at New Holland Baptist Church in Gainesville, GA, he was a gentleman. He was always dressed in a nice suit and looked sharp. I am the pianist at New Holland and he was always very complimentary of our music. And my favorite memory: He came up to me one day at church and said, "Me and the Lord talk about you several times a day every day." It meant a lot to me to know that he was praying for me daily and I thought about that comment often. Fred will be missed. May God give his family and friends peace and comfort at this time of your loss.

“ Lots of memories of Mr. Fred....He and our daddy (Connie Byrd) shared a lifetime friendship. They grew up together, went to church and school together. They shared the type of friendship that distance nor time apart didn't make a difference because they were able to start a conversation like they had seen each other yesterday In their later years they shared many "remember went Moments" and there was always lots of laughter. I'm sure Mr. Fred, Mrs. Kay, momma and daddy are rejoicing together again over a pot of good coffee..... The Connie Byrd Family
