“Mrs. Harris, Rosemary, Freddy, Ryan and Chris I grieve with you. Fred was such a big part of my life for all these many, many years.

Mrs. Harris, Momma Harris, I want to thank you for bringing into this world such a fine man, a true lifetime and loyal friend to me for all these years.

Rosemary, you were indeed the love and light in Fred's life. You should always know that he was truly in love with you from the moment he first met you so many years ago. I could see it and hear it in his voice when he first mentioned your name to me. I remember so vividly the night he first saw and got to know you and later him asking me if I knew where you lived. I will forever consider it an honor for having played a somewhat small part in bringing you two together, for giving Fred that initial push of courage to ask you out on a date.

Boys, Freddy, Ryan and Christopher, you should all know your Daddy loved and was so very proud of each and every one of his boys. Carry his memory in your hearts forever and know that he is always with you, looking over your shoulder and guiding you in your life.

To you all, I want each of you to know that I consider it an honor and privilege to have known Fred and I will forever treasure the memory of his face in my museum of recollections. Please know that it doesn't matter what time of day, or what day of the week I am forever here for you all. My love, thoughts and prayers are with each and every one of you in this most difficult time.

Love,

Ben

“ Fred and my husband, Ben, have been friends since high school and have remained close. Ben told me that he was his brother from another mother. We have both enjoyed the times that we spent with Fred and Rosemary and will miss him very much. Fred was just such a kind, faithful and wonderful friend. Our prayers are with Rosemary, Freddy, Ryan and Christopher and Fred's mom that they will find peace.
