

Mr. George William Douglas

December 30, 1938 - September 5, 2024

It is with deep sadness that we share the passing of George William Douglas, who left us peacefully on September 5, 2024, at the age of 85. Born on December 30, 1938, in Peabody, Massachusetts, George was the beloved son of John and Jeanette Douglas.

George's life was rich in love, laughter, and adventure. He married his soulmate, Ellen Fergueson, in 1963. Together, they journeyed through life, moving from place to place, before settling in Hartsville, South Carolina, in 1990 when his company relocated to Florence, SC. George retired from a dedicated career at ESAB Group in 2001.

Retirement brought George the joy of fishing, boating, and bowling, pastimes he shared with dear friends. Whether it was on the water or at Southside Patti's, George's warmth and humor brightened the lives of everyone he met. He cherished time spent with family and friends. He also cherished time spent proudly driving his Maserati and Corvette and enjoying the camaraderie of his community.

In 2023, George moved back to Hartsville to live at The Legacy, where he found comfort and happiness in the simplest pleasures—sharing stories, relaxing, and playing Bingo with friends.

George is survived by his five children: Kimberly (Jerry Lorenz) Grant Park IL, Jennifer E. Douglas, Hartsville, SC, David (Jennifer Douglas), Naples, Fla, Deborah (John Sloan), Tucson, AZ, and Jill (Robert Kelley) Hartsville, SC; his eleven grandchildren, five great-grandchildren and special friend, Sherri Selby.

He has reunited in loving peace with Ellen Douglas, his parents, John and Jeanette Douglas, sister Joanne Berry, and his brothers, John and Arthur Douglas.

In lieu of flowers, donations can be made to St. Jude Children's Hospital, a cause George held close to his heart, or to Hospice Care of your choice.
