

Mr. George Edward Flowers

September 16, 1921 - October 8, 2012

A graveside service for George Edward “Ed” Flowers Sr., 91, will be held at 3:00 p.m. Thursday October 11, 2012 at Swift Creek Baptist Church. The family will receive friends from 5 to 7 p.m. Wednesday October 10, 2012 at the home, 2225 Flinns Road, Hartsville. Brown-Pennington-Atkins Funeral Home is serving the family. In lieu of flowers, memorials may be made to the American Cancer Society, 128 Stonemark Lane, Columbia SC 29210.

Mr. Flowers died Monday, October 8, 2012, at his home. Born September 16, 1921 in Auburn, S.C., he was the son of the late John E. and Ecie Moody Flowers.

Mr. Flowers went to Carlisle Military Academy and joined the Army Dec. 8, 1941. He served in the Army signal corps in the North Africa campaign. After the war, he became a life-long farmer and retired from Hartsville Oil Mill and Klopman Industry.

Mr. Flowers was a lifetime member of Swift Creek Baptist Church. He was a model of a giving person who cared deeply for others, and many people benefited from his generosity.

He is survived by his wife of 65 years, Dora Helen Wallace Flowers; sons George Edward “Eddie” Flowers Jr. (Karen) of Irmo, Kent Wallace Flowers (Suzanne) of Lexington; daughter, Elaine Flowers Hubbard (Gene) of Darlington; grandchildren, Rion Hubbard (Kat) of Columbia, Carl Flowers

(Amy) of Lexington; Melinda Craft (Tyler) of Lexington; Westin Flowers of Lexington; great-grandchildren, Rayne and Reef Hubbard, Ansleigh Craft; sister, Rae Flowers Outlaw.

The family extends a special thank you to Randy Gainey and Dr. Ken Evans for their devotion, dedication and compassion in caring for Mr. Flowers.

“ So sorry to hear about your great loss. "If a man die, shall he live again?" asked Job a long time ago. Well the Bible makes the promise: Your dead ones will live...They will rise up. So soon you may see Mr. George again and you enjoying him again.
